

HD-30 Candidate Michelle Jones Endorses Michelle Hall for State Court Judge

For Immediate Release

May 19, 2016

In advance of the Tuesday May 24th Georgia primary, GA HD-30 candidate Michelle Jones is proud to endorse Gainesville attorney Michelle Hall for Hall County State Court Judge. Michelle Hall is a candidate in the non-partisan May 24th vote to determine the new state court judge, after the current judge Charles Wynne retired after years of service to Hall County and the state. Michelle Jones had the following statement regarding her endorsement:

"On the campaign trail I've had the pleasure of meeting Michelle Hall at a variety of venues, and in that time I've come to know her as a candidate who is dedicated to serving everyone in Hall County. She's done a tremendous job engaging with the community, and will serve our county well as state court judge.

As a state court judge, I'm confident Michelle Hall will fairly apply the law, ensure due process, and protect our constitutional rights from the bench. I am particularly drawn to support her due to her experience as a current municipal court judge in Flowery Branch, GA, along with her varied experience in multiple types of law as an attorney. When you vote in the May 24th primary, I encourage you to cast your vote for Michelle Hall for state court judge"
